SOCIETY IN WASHINGTON

MRS. ROOSEVELT HAS MRS. WOOD FOR LUNCHEON

Roosevelt entertained Mrs. Wood, wife of Gen. Leonard Wood, re-cently returned to Washington from the Philippines, at luncheon today in the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt chaperoned her daughter, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, and her young house guest, Miss Cornelia Landon, of New York, in a box at the Columbia Theater last evening for the perform ance of the "Virginian."

During the afternoon Mrs. Roosevelt took advantage of the bracing fall weather to walk out in Rock Creek Park, accompanied by Miss Isabelle Hagner and Capt. Roscoe Bulmer, for-merly aide to the President, now com-manding the Sylph.

Miss Ethel and Miss Landon drove out in Miss Ethel's trap, a high two-wheeler, one of the smartest seen in Washington so far this season. The President's youngest daughter is quite an expert horsewoman, and 'while attending the National Cathedral School usually handled the reins herself on her daily drives to and from the school.
